

MDP on Agribusiness Management at IIM-Lucknow

NAIP through its Learning and Capacity Building (L&CB) project of component-1 has planned to train about 100 teachers in Agribusiness Management in NARS system. The programs will be conducted at IIM-Lucknow in four batches of 25 participants each. The program will be in the form of 21 day MDP. The entire expenditure will be met by the NAIP.

Deans/ Principals of ABM schools may nominate up to five faculty members (in order of merit). Your recommendation should meet the following criteria:

1. The program is meant for Lecturer, Assistant/ Associate Professors or equivalent post,
2. The faculty member must be engaged in teaching Post Graduate Program in Agribusiness Management in the university, and
3. Preferably the faculty member must be under 50 year's age as on January, 2010.

The nominations in enclosed proforma duly forwarded by the university should reach NAIP Helpdesk, NAARM, Hyderabad-500407 (email: helpdesk@naarm.ernet.in) latest by January 25, 2010. The first MDP would be held during March 15-April 2, 2010 and the schedule for the remaining three programs will be intimated later (2 in 2010-11 and 1 in 2011-12).
